

Dear Friends:

I'm shaving my head! You heard it right - I'm shaving my head on March 17, 2009 in solidarity with children who have cancer and typically lose their hair during treatment, while raising critical funds for childhood cancer research!

In the United States, more children die of childhood cancer than any other disease. Thanks to the St. Baldrick's Foundation we are fighting back. St. Baldrick's is a strong partner and supporter of Rainbow Babies & Children's Hospital in Cleveland, Ohio and began as a casual conversation between friends that has exploded into the world's biggest volunteer-driven fundraising program for childhood cancer! In nine years, events have taken place in 18 countries and 48 U.S. states, raising over $50 million, and shaving more than 72,000 heads.

Team Rainbow will be participating on St. Patrick's (Baldrick's) Day at A.J. Rocco's in downtown Cleveland and we encourage you to join in the fun.

You can watch me getting my hair shaved LIVE on Cleveland's Fox News 8 at 8:20am on March 17th, 2009!!!

Please consider making a donation on my behalf to support childhood cancer research so that all children diagnosed with cancer will have a better chance for a cure.

To make a donation, please visit my St. Baldrick's Foundation webpage:
